Shiloh Cemetery Update – Deborah updated us on Shiloh cemetery and reported that the Shiloh Cemetery Committee has contracted Van Sexton of Sexton Lawn Service for perpetual care of the Shiloh Cemetery. We appreciated all of the hard work that Stella and Charles Ledford and Doyt Phifer have done over the past years.

Minutes: The Secretary, read the 67th, 2013 minutes. A motion to accept the minutes was made, seconded and approved. No corrections were noted. She announced that she was stepping down after four years and that Allison Seagraves Mitchell had agreed to fill the position, if no one objected. Motion made, seconded and passed unanimously.

The Secretary mentioned that a play was in the town of Kings Mountain called “Liberty Hill” and hoped to be a yearly event in conjunction with the Battle of Kings Mountain anniversary, and encouraged everyone to try to attend.

Historian Report: Marjorie Gossage (LaGossag@mail.com) is Historian for the Mary Dover line of the Hambrights and stated it is still a work in progress and we all need to be diligent in sending in our family updates. Lee Gossage has updated information on the website (ColFrederickHambricht.org) It has had 3500+ hits (this does not include revisits). Lee stated we have eight (8) years left on the domain.

Rebecca Kohout (rebecca@TexpertHomes.com) is the Historian for the Sarah Hardin line of the Hambright’, please report any updated information to her.

President, Deeda Parton thanked all for the support she has received as the President of the Hambright reunion and she has agreed to stay on as President for two more years, if no one else wanted position. Motion was made and seconded and passed unanimously.

Business: Bill Benson stated a microphone system like the one we were using would cost us about $500. A motion was made by Deborah Early to purchase a system and the president in office would be caretaker. Motion was seconded by Eudora Anne Ratcliffe. Andrew Hambricht made a challenge from floor for all to match $20 towards system and balance come from Reunion fund. Motion made and seconded and passed unanimously. Collected $263 and the balance will come from reunion fund.

Tina Everhardt reported that her great uncle, Kish North Hambricht, who died March 27, 1915 in a lineman accident, was presented an award from the Lineman Association. Tina showed the plaque and a large framed picture of her Uncle Kish to the assembly. This award with other fallen Linesmen’s is to be added to a museum.

Janell Dixon stated that on Saturday night some members of the Kings Mountain Sons of the American Revolution attended the workshop held at Holiday Inn Express. If any male members need assistance to obtain membership in the SAR they would be willing to assist them. A large group attended the Saturday genealogy session.

A motion was made to move the next reunion date to October 4, 2015 to coincide with the Battleground activities, Oct 7 2015.

The meeting was adjourned.
